CITY POLITICS.

The Canvass at an End-The Soreheads Played Out-Rathrond Cry-The Regu. lar Tammany and Mozart Ticket Loom ing Up-its Probable Success-The Judges-The Register-Senatorial Contests—The Seventh District—Police and Civil Justices—McKeon Party in Trouble—Who will Furnish Boxes!— Candidates Before the People, &c.

The canvass for the November election is virtually at an end, and, to use the slang phrase of politicians, city politica "are played out." No one anticipates that any changes will be now made, or anything that can be heredemocratic State ticket out of, and thus the McKeon party has come to grisf—out of money, out at the elbows, with their brass nearly all used up. This is a bad fix, and we pity them; for, like many others, we looked to them to help reform our politics, and put an end to this wholesale buying and selling in the nominations. The other new soreheads appear to be in a still worse fix—no boxes and no money. In fact, there is one striking characteristic of this campaign. Money has been subscribed for the local elections in this city in very limited amount, and the result is that all but the old standing organizations are fast coming to grief. The redone will effect in the least the result, unless there should happen to be some sleight of hand performances in regard to the ballots. The only thing left to be done now tickets, and other minute details about work on election ay which always have to be attended to.

Everybody is sanguine of success, and each candidate as a vem delusion that no other person is half as popu Not a few imagine that they will poll all the votes cast and not leave one for their opponents. This is certainly a very happy feeling, and ought to enable the reams imaginable; but then there is one thing that mus ant in all cases of this kind—that is, to asce tain that the opponent has really more votes in the ballot bus 22 Thesday night than be has. This almost invariably happens to those wonderfully popular men in

There appears to have been considerable changes in the feeling of the people in the last few days, or at least it has that appearance on the surface. The soreheads and disappointed cliques have completely run out, and are forced to "dry up." The meeting of the McKeon party on Friday night was far from being what was anticipul Instead of having a racy and spicy time they were only the hum-drum anti-railroad cry, with many of the men furnishing the funds and urging the thing on who are co-workers with Vanderbilt, Horace F. Clark & Co., for a Hariem Broadway Railroad. In fact, while the McKeon party is making a great noise against railroads, they are pushing forward and supporting men who are in the interest of the Hariem. Broadway Ratiroad. In fact the power behind the throne in that party is the Wall street Harlem Broadway These anti railroad howlers are very quee very queer way of showing it; for about every legislative candidate that they support happens to be a railroad man. In this view we can look upon their course in no light than bordering a little on the hypocritical, and that they are really trying to get control, in order and steal a march on the other side.

Assantia. The indications of the last twenty-four hours rey strongly point to the success of the en-tire Tammany and Mozart ticket. McCarthy may possibly work in, but we see no chance for any other unless it is in the Superior Court. It is gene-rally conceded that McCuan has made his election sure by his active course and the way he has surned the charges made by the Times and Tribune. Garvin is also ooked upon as certain, yet the muddle in regard to their positions in the Superior Court is such that it is impossible for any man to judge correctly. At any rate the tide for the last day or two has turned in favor of the regular nominations, for discovered that there are other men besides those who some other reason for this apparent change of front. The ticket of Tammany and Mozart, as a general thing, is a good ticket. Were it not for the desire to maintain other tried and efficient men in office, we doubt if there would be much of anything said against them. As to Samuel B. Garvin, the nominee to take the place of White in the Suresided to Utica and in this city most of his life; was resided to Utica and in this city most of his its; was elected District Attorney in Oneida county in 1851, and resigned that office in 1853, having been appointed by Franklin Pierce District Attorney of the United Status for the Northern District in this State, an office which he for the Northern Labrict in this State, an omee which he held until 1857. He is an animated and eloqueut speaker, a man of good reading and experience, winning manners and courteous to all, and possesses all the qualifications for an able jungs, and, we think, youry way quantum and worthy of the distinguished position that he seeks.

There is a desperate effort made by the cow boys of the Backle and Versey were to desert before a less than

Rankin and Forris party to deteat McCool and elect the republican candidate for Register. The issue is direct between these two, and we believe that McCool is so far aboad that be is out of danger. McCool is an old member of the Fire Department, for several years foreman of Hose Company 24, and has in fact been identified with the ent for twenty years. The report that was non that he intended to run as Treasurer in put in circulation that he intended to run as Treas the department against Giles is false. McCool has

There has nothing new transpired in any way affecting republicans have a good man in the field in the Fourth—Mr. W. H. Gilson, of the International Hotel, or Taylor's saloot -but the odds are too much against him to

In the Fifth district the friends of Cozans are bettin on their thousand majority against Dugro, who, from all accounts, it seems, has not been able to make much headway among the Germans. Cozane is evidently the winning borse this time.

In the Sixth district the canvass appears to have taken a turn in tavor of Vircent C. King, the regular demo cratic nominoe. William Guest, Esq., who was in the field as a stump against him has withdrawn, and the contest is simply between King and Laimbeer, Jr., the republican candidate. Mr. King is a member of the Fire Department, and is, we believe, one of the Board of Commissioners of Appeals, and is well known throughout the district. Laimbeer, Jr., is pushed very hard, and the race is as close, if not more so, than in any other district; but at the present time the chances are decidedly King's favor.

The Seventh district appears to be the interesting field of operations just now. It is in that district that mitting all sorts of depredations among the politicians. Skirmshing, bushwacking and all other performances are going on there night and day. The whole dis-trict in in a state of aiarm, and the last accounts from that locality the women and children were about to be sent off to a place of safety until those guerilla raids can be put a stop to. One great trouble seemed to be that these raids were invariably made under a false flag, and these raids were invariably made under a false lag, and everyhody was taken by surprise; but the matter is now better understood, and the populace are ready to meet them, and we have no doubt that by Tuesday night we shall have the intelligence that the guerillas are all routed, and are retreating in great confusion, botly purned by the regular forces.

But to lay jesting aside, the contest in the Seventh district is the richest and recent of that in any other nistrict. A desperate effort is being made to defeat thomas C. Field, who is a strong war democrat, probably stronger on that point than any other candidate in the city. Mr. Fields, as a member of the Assembly, did all that he could to perfect the Excise law, and in one point endeavored to reduce the amount of costs of the dealer from fifteen to five dollars. He was unable to carry his amendment through, but cordially supported the bill. It was to his energy that the Croton Water bill for the upper end of the city was put through; also the approprintion to the Sacred Heart Institution and also the bill for indigent children. His principal competitor is Cornellus A. Runkle, the republican candidate Alexander Wood is trofted out by the pretended anti-Harlem Broadway Railroad, so famous of late in Wall atreet. This dodge is beginning to be understood, and have everything in his own way. Several candidates for police and civil justices are pressing their claims, notwithstanding the tumoit of the November election. Mr. Hewitt, in the lower district, seems to have the inside track with the payers of Mozarf or the civil justice. The contest is between him and Quinn; but, according to our latest advices, Hewitt has flanked Quinn.

In a former notice we stated that John R. Harnett was a candidate for police justice. We now learn that he is a candidate for the position of civil justice in the Sixth district, comprising the Eighteenth and Twenty Srat

The Dunderberg Iron-Clad. Mr. Webb is making rapid strides towards the completion of this tremendous ship of war. She will be truly a "thundering mountain," as her name implies. Not long since Admiral Milne, who was formerly of the Shertly after the visit of the English Admiral the Russian Admiral paid the Dunderberg a visit, accompanied by his staff. They spont nearly a whole day in inspecting her and the Italian frigates. The Admiral was surprised and delighted at the enormous ship and her peculiar formation. The truth is—and we learn from various authentic sources—that the Dunderberg is creating a deal or talk in naval circles all over Europe, and a celebrated English officer is said to have remarked, after her being described to him:—"When will these Yankees end with their new inventions in armored vessels?"

PATAL FRUIT ON SHIPHOARD.—John Jones, a native of Scotland, aged thirty-eight years, died at St. Vincent's Hospital yeaterday from the effects of injuries received at the hands of Henry Maguire, a sailor on board the ship F. A. Palmer, recently arrived from Liverpool. The deceased, it appears, cames as a pastenger in the above vessel, and on the 30th ultimo, while the vessel was lying in the harbor, a dispute arose between him and Maguire, which ended in a fight. During the disturbance Maguire picked up a belaying pin, and, chasing deceased around the cook's galley, atruck him two or three violent blows on the head. Upon being removed to the hospital it was ascertained that the skull of the patient was irrectured, and the declor gave it as his opinion that the case was hopeless. Coronar Collin held an inquest upon the body, when the jury rendered a verdict against Maguire, charging him with having killed deceased. A warrant was issued for the apprehension of the accused, but up to a late hour last night it had not been executed.

THE NAVY.

Not long since Admiral Milne, who was formerly of the Admiralty Board, visited this vessel and spent several hours in closely inspecting her. To say that he was pleased with her conveys but an inadequate idea of the terms in which he expressed himself in relation to his appreciation of her every point of symmetry and adaptability for the purpose for which she was designed. He acknowledged that in this ship there were the elements of a terrible engine of war, and that a principle was developed in her that would in time revolutionize the present favorite system of iron clad shipbuilding. We note this visit of this distinguished British official at this time to show that there is sometimes an Englishman who, whose he sees a good thing, can an
